W. J. BRYAN NOMINATED.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE

York at 8 o'clock to-night. The private car of william C. Whitney, containing that gentleman, David B. Hill, Smith M. Weed, Frederic R. Coudert, William F. Sheehan and other prominent members of the New-York delegation, was attached to an Eastern passenger train to-night, and they also departed homeward. The seats of the New-York delegation in the Convention te-morrow will be vacant, with the exception of that occupied by Roswell P. Flower. He will my that New-York does not care to vote for Vice-president after such a platform has been Controller Eckels said to-night that the gold Democrats of various States held a conference this afternoon, and have issued an address recammending the holding of a National Convention to nominate a Democrat for President on a Democratic platform. Mr. Eckels said: "I anpripate that this National Convention of the -money Democrats will be held within a month." The New-York Democrats said they would hold their State Convention late, in order to take abundant time to think over the proposi to indorse Bryan and a free-coinage plat-The Democratic State Convention will be seld in Buffalo about the first week in October. It will then be determined whether to nominate pold electors or silver electors pledged to vote for

ATTITUDE OF THE GOLD STATES.

The attitude of the gold-standard States in the fight for the nomination is of curious interest. of the 301 delegates who voted yesterday against the adoption of the Populistic platform offered by the new party leaders, 162 declined to-day to record their votes for any Presidential candidate. The other 141 continued to the end to participate actively in the work of the Con-The 162 delegates who refused to vote were distributed thus among the States: New York 72; New-Jersey, 18; Connecticut, 10; Maine, 4; Vermont, 4; Massachusetts, 18; Wisonein, 19; New-Hampshire, 7; Rhode Island, 2: Delaware. 2: Maryland, 1, and Minnesota, 5. Of the 141 anti-free-coinage delegates who de ed to vote, from ninety-five to a hundred supported ex-Governor Pattison as a non-committal way of retaining their active membership in the Convention. The rest supported one or an other of the active silver candidates, and on the final ballot at least forty-four votes from goldstandard States were cast for an out-and-out free-coinage nomince. Delaware gave Bryan one vote in the final struggle. Maryland gave him 5 votes; Massachusetts, 6; Minnesota, 11; Wisconsin, 5; South Dakota, 8; Vermont, 4; while Massachusetts and Minnesota cast 2 votes aplece for Vice-President Stevenson.

The policy pursued by the sound-money delegations had much to do with weakening the moral effect of their forces against the free-coinage platform, and to raise the suspicion that their threats of fractional resistance in case the revolutionary programme of the Western and Southern leaders were fastened upon the party, were only empty fulminations for local and tem-

COLLAPSE OF THE TELLER BOOM.

It is worthy to note that after all the prose lyting efforts of the free-coinage Senators who withdrew from the St. Louis Convention to force the nomination of a sliver Republican here, Mr. Teller, of Colorado, the leader, offered to the Democratic silver managers, received but eight votes all told in to-day's balloting. These were given to him by the Colorado delegates, who after paying him an empty compliment on the first and second ballots, dropped him as a Presidential possibility, and transferred their votes to Bland, and then to Bryan. The whole Teller movement was, of course, an absurdity, and his candidacy was hopeless from the day the first protests of the "mossbacks" against any repetition of the experiment of 1872 made emselves heard

No one is willing to predict to-night what the Populist Convention which meets in St. Louis on July 22 will do in view of to-day's nomination for the Presidency. It has been the settled conviction of most of the leaders here that no candidate they might name would receive the indorsement of the Populist National Convention, yet Mr. Bryan's Democracy is so deeply tinged with opulism, and his affiliation with the Populist party in Nebraska has been so pronounced, that the Democratic managers are already turning with some hope toward St. Louis, and the gathering of the Populist delegates week after next is therefore likely to assume an added interest and

TALK OF ANOTHER CONVENTION.

Talk about calling of a second Democratic National Corvention to put a sound-money Presidential ticket in the field is still too vague to base definite predictions on. It is not likely that any step toward calling a new Convention and forming a new National organization will be taken until the sound-money delegations have a chance to test the party sentiment in their own States. If the movement for a second ticket is launched, the Illinois sound-money Democracy, excluded from the recent State Convention at Peorla, will probably take the lead and issue the National call.

THE VOTE IN DETAIL.

The vote for the various candidates on the different ballots was as follows: 1 -1 -1 -1 -1 -1 first battot.	econd ballot	hird ballot.	burth ballot	ifih ballet.

-	119	190	219	240	500
Bland	235	283	291	241	108
Bhies	85	41	36	33	26
Matthewa	37	33	84	27 27	31
Blackburn	93 54	41	27	46	23
delean		53	97	97	95
attison	95	100		34
ennoyer	8	8			-
eller	- 8	. 8	- 2
Mevenson	7	10	. 5	8
Milman	17	-	-	100	555
amphell	1	-	-	-	720
Rumell	2	-	272	100	-
(iii	1	1	1	1	1
Purote	1000	-	200	-	1
differ	1276	162	162	161	162

NO NOMINATION FOR VICE-PRESIDENT. The early adjournment of the Convention this evening, amid the uproar of the contending factions, emphasizes the bitter feeling of resentment with which the nomination of a political upstart and adventurer is received by the friends of Mr. Bryan's defeated rivals. When the Convention adjourned this afternoon it was pretty generally understood that the choice of the Convention for second place on the ticket was Colonel John R. McLean.

Having chanced the Presidency on a man who has attained thirty-six years of age, the Convention evidently thought it too big a risk to leave on his life to permit the slightest doubt as to the absolute fitness of their Vice-Presidential candidate for taking Mr. Bryan's place if he should break down under the burdens of office. So they are giving twice as much time to agree on their choice of the second man on their ticket as they did to the first. This, and not the fear that Friday would put a hoodoo on the ticket if completed on that day, caused the adjournment till saturday. A party that had the courage to nominate Bryan for President couldn't be frighted by a Friday.

The free-coinage leaders of the Democratic party held a conference at the Shorman House to-night to select a candidate for Vice-President. William J. Bryan, their candidate for President. Was present. It looked at midnight as though lohn R. MacLean would be the choice of the lenatorial coterie and of Mr. Bryan, but Joseph ... Sibley's name was also considered. tion evidently thought it too big a risk to leave

ANGLO-FRENCH COMPLICATIONS.

SERIOUS TROUBLE IMMINENT ALONG THE SHORE OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

John's N. F., July 10 .- The pending complicalens between England and France have occasioned considerable friction over the French shore question here, which appears to be certain to result in serious ing St. John's this week negotiating triffing ques- AN UPRISING OF THE PRESS. tions arising from the troubles between the fisher-men on the coast. The prohibition of the use of cod traps is being strictly enforced against the New-foundlead fishermen. Yesterday the Government notified the French commodore that it intended to compel French fishermen to pay duties on all goods landed on the French treaty shore.

This demand appalled Commodore Re telegraphed to his Government for instructions. An-awering dispatches were received this afternoon, the nature of which is not known yet, but La Clochetfrie will leave to-morrow morning, friendly relations hav-ing beer suspended. The outcome of the trouble excites much apprehension.

MR. HANNA IS PLEASED.

HOW THE NOMINATION OF BRYAN WAS RECEIVED IN CANTON

MAJOR M'KINLEY AND THE NATIONAL REPUB LICAN CHAIRMAN MORE CONFIDENT OF VICTORY THAN EVER-VISITORS

OF THE DAY.

Canton, Ohio, July 10 .- Mark A. Hanne, chairman of the Republican National Committee, had a long conference with Major McKinley this afternoon. The finishing touches were given to the list of members of the Executive and Advisory committees, and the personnel of the two committees will soon be given to the public. The National Committee will meet in Cleveland next Wednesday and the active work of the campaign will be begun.

Major McKinley and Mr. Hanna were together when the news of Mr. Bryan's nomination was re-ceived. A few moments after the decisive ballot was cast at Chicago Mr. Hanna appeared on the veranda. His face was wreathed in smiles, and he cago was plainly not displeasing to the manager of the Republican campaign. Mr. Hanna was outspoken in his denunciation of the Chicago platform and its dangerous and Populistic utterances, although he expressed regret tha so many delegates, representing one of the great parties of the United States, should have been willing to adopt it. A platform of repudiation and dishonor is what Mr. Hanna called it, and he was supported in his opinion by several Democrats who happened to be present. There is great distress among prominent Democrats here over their plat form and candidate.

Major McKinley received a dozen telegrams from Nebraska Democrats this evening, denouncing Mr Bryan as a Populist, and declaring that he cannot carry his own State. The prevailing notion b among Republicans and Democrats is that Mr. Bryan is more of a Populist than of a Democrat and that he is a fit exponent of the platform.

M. N. Wallace, of Omaha, who has until lately been an active advocate of free sliver, said to Major McKinley this evening that Mr. Bryan would no receive the support of the conservative Democrati of his own State, and that he would without doubt of his own State, and that he would without doubt be indorsed by the National Convention of Populats in St. Louis. He said further that throughout the West Mr. Bryan was regarded rather as a Populats than as a Democrats.

Several local Democrats of prominence have informed Major McKinley that they could not support the Chicago platform, and that they will vote for him. During the day a score of telegroms have been received by Major McKinley congratulating him on the indorsement he has received from prominent opposition journals.

position journals.

Major McKinley is in excellent spirits to-day, and while he deplores the unfortunate utterances of the Chicago platform, he is not unaware that the adoption of that platform, in the opinion of well-informed politicians, means destruction to the party which procedured it. tion of that piatform, in the opinion of weal-module positicians, means destruction to the party which proclaimed it.

While the bulletins were coming in this morning Mr. McKinley and his wife took a drive for half an hour with some friends. The first dispatch of general interest he received to-day was from New-Orleans. It said: "An immense mass-meeting, held here last night, enthusiastically indorsed McKinley and Hobart and the Republican platform. You can count on the electoral vote of Louisiana." The telegram was signed by John H. Pharr, chairman of the meeting.

standard the meeting. Speaking of Congressman Frank H. Hurd, a well known free-trader, who died to-day, and who serve in Congress with him, Major McKinley said: "H was a brave, able, honest man, always having the courage of his convictions. He was a manily adversary and a steadfast friend. I knew him well an appreciate the great qualities which distinguishes him."

him."
Among Major McKiniey's visitors to-day were exCongressman Farquhar, of Buffalo, and John E. Miholland, of New-York Mr. Miholland said the outlook in New-York was gratifying, and observed that the nomination of Mr. Bryan would make the Democratic cause more hopeless than ever.

THE VALKYRIE TO SAIL AT LAST.

A SKIPPER AND CREW ARRIVE TO TAKE HER BACK TO THE CLYDIC.

st this country is to be rid of the English yacht Valkyrie, which has been the subject of so many and so diverse rumors ever since the racing flasco last fall. She is to be taken back to England, under the orders of the Earl of Dunraven, who is still her owner. The skipper who is to return her over on the American liner St. 9:30 o'clock. He is a veteran English sailor and yachtsman, Captain William John Dixon by name With him are his first officer, Fairweather; second mate, J. Dixon; a crew of seamen named Murphs Peterson, Barbour, Haskins, Alderney, Johnson Straus, Rasminson, Wagstrom and Mano, and a steward, Benson. The men, it is understood, were all picked up in a satiors' boarding-house in Londor in a group, and were contracted for in a bunch each man receiving if d. for the entire crutse, including his passage money.

Captain Dixon, who is a typical salt, was found rolling about the pier trying to distinguish between ship's officers, policemen and revenue officials. He had received a letter from H. Maitland Kersey teiling him that one of the White Star Line tugs would be at the pier to meet him and to convey him and the crew at once to the yacht, but the Ellis Island officials had not been consulted, and the effort was vain, so all hands remained on board all night. Captain Dixon, as soon as he could get his breath after a chase up the pler, said: "I have been sent over to take the Valkyrie back to England, and shall leave here as soon as I can get he stores on hoard. We shall probably get away next Monday, and it not then by Tuesday at the latest I did not come over here to live on the boat, but to take her home. We shall proceed at once to the Clyde, where she will be hauled out and put in racing trim. If she can be got ready in time, she the Clyde, where she will be hauted out and pass he racing trim. If she can be got ready in time, she will be seen in the Cowes regatta, against the German Empetor's new yacht, the Meteor, and the Britannia. If she is not ready for that regatta, she will be taken to the Mediterranean for the races there. That is all I know about her. Yes, she still belongs to Lord Dunraven. At least, I received my orders from him.

It is known that almost all of the stores necessary for the return voyage of the Valkyrio have been placed on board in the last few days, under Mr. Kersey's orders, so that very little remains to be done to have her ready for sea. The stores include a new gailey stove. Captain Dixon carried with him his chronometer and his bundle of sailing charts, which he watched with solicitous care. Asked if he had ever been in this country before, he gave the speaker a outzelcal look out of the weather eye and replied: "Was I ever in this country? Why, bless vou, I was over here during your war, running the blockade in the Black Adder, and was chased by the Federal cruisers and had to get back into Spanish waters. Then I used to come to this port many years ago with petroleum. Then I landed at the foot of Wallst, I think it was, but that was a great many years ago."

OUTINGS FOR HUNDREDS.

LARGE PARTIES BEING SENT INTO THE COUNTRY BY THE TRIBUNE FRESH AIR FUND.

The Tribune Fresh-Air Fund sent away to the country on Thursday 392 children. This was only keeping up the record that had been made in the previous few days. The busiest part of the Fresh-Air season is at hand; the work is being pushed with energy, and scores of poor little tenement inmates are every day pouring out of the hot, close city into the green fields and bracing air of the country.

A noticeably large company of children was that which took the evening train for Oil City, Penn., on Thursday. The number that boarded the train was 145, and of these eighty-nine went to Oil City The rest of the party were all children who had received special invitations from homes in this part of the country, and were on their way to see families who have had in summers gone by, and have grown so fond of their little city guests that they keep inviting them again and again. The eighty-nine children them again and again. The eighty-nine children who went to Oil City are beginning to enjoy probably the gladdest two weeks they ever dreamed of. The work there, which has been managed by the Rev. S. A. Cornelius, has been done most carefully and thoroughly, and nothing will be wanting to give the little ones a rollicking good time. The second party of frieen for Fairfield, Conn., went away Thursday afternoon. A party of twenty-five assembled at the pier of the Norwich Line that afternoon, and took the night boat for Northfield. Mass. where they will stay two weeks. The work thare has been but through by the Rev. C. I. Scofield and Julius M. Clapp. The children will be enfeld and Julius M. Clapp. The children will be enfeld and Julius M. Clapp. The children will be enfeld and ample arrangements have been made for them.

over three hundred children went out on Friday.

Over three hundred children went out on Friday.

consisting of five parties, one each for Curtissville,

consisting of five parties, one each for Curtissville,

Mass.; Chapel Hill, N. J.; Tenafly, N. J.; Ashford

Hill, N. Y., and North Madison, Conn.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE

tion, which only revolutionizes the Democratic party. It rejects the whole platform.

Of the free-silver craze it says: "This outbreak on a National scale will be ephemeral, as those outbreaks that have preceded it in local quarters have been. Its success, perhaps, would be its speedlest ruin of all, for it would show the folly of its doctrines, and the incapacity to govern of those who are in the lead in their advocacy. This would be an experience, however, at a cost so threatening that we do not allow ourselves its contemplation."

ever, at a cost so threatening that we do not allow ourselves its contemplation."

These are merely sample views from the leading Democratic papers which the mails brought in yesterday. Another day's mails will tell the story of the angry rejection of the repudiation by the Democratic papers of the South and West, for whatever the demagogues of those sections may advocate the leading journals are all for sound money. Among those which take this stand, and which may confidently be expected to oppose the Chicago candidates and platform are "The Riehmond Times," "The Charleston News and Courier," "The Mobile Register," "The Jacksonville Citizen," "The New-Orleans Picayune," "The Galveston News," "The Louisville Courier-Journal," "Post" and "Times," "The Chattanooga Times," "The Nashville Banner" and "American," and many others, being the leading Democratic papers of their respective States.

HONEST DEMOCRATS CALLED TO-GETHER.

THE COURIER-JOURNAL," OF LOUISVILLE, RE-

PUDIATING THE CHICAGO PLATFORM, BIDS THE PARTY HOLD A NEW CONVENTION. Louisville, July 10 .- "The Courier Journal" its acting editor-in-chief, Harrison Robertson, re-

"The Courier Journal" will say: "Such foolhardy and bastard leadership, and such a radical revolution of the very life principles of Democracy will be disowned by those Democrats whose subserviency to party form is not dictated by their desire to share in the official spoils of party success and whose fealty to party organization means fidelity to the views for the advancement of which party is only the instrument. Speaking for these Democrats, "The Courier Journal," whole existence has been spent in battle for Democracy, rejects the new faith of fiztism, repudiation and anarchy which the Chicago Convention has proclaimed as the Democratic creed, refuses to support the nominees, who have been, in unprecedent faith, and calls upon true Democrats everywhere, sick at heart, though they be, but undaunted and resolute, to stand forth for their cause and put out a resolute, to stand forth for their cause and put out a ticket, planted on a platform that shall embody alike the undying purpose and the immortal record of the Democratic party, and shall, in these evil days of storm and wreck, shine a beacon and lower a bulwark for the salvation now and in the future of the party which was born with the birth throes of the Republic shall survive.

"Let a Democratic convention be called, let a Democratic organization be perfected, let a Democratic ticket be nominated on a Democratic platform, and let a Democratic campaign, thorough, zealous, unflagging, be made in every State of the Union until the November polis shall have closed. We shall not elect that ticket, but we shall save many a sound-money Democrat to Congress, we shall prove the right of the Democratic party to continue in the existence, and with the crash of the Implous fabric which the fever-brained insurgents at Chicago have erected under the Democratic flag we shall survive with a compact intelligent and vigorous organization, the neucleus, the instrument and the guarantor of a regenerated and reinvigorated Democracy, chastened, strengthened and in the end dominant for the Nation's good in the century to come as it has been in the century that is history."

WALLER ADVOCATES A BOLT. THE CONVENTION, HE SAYS, SOUNDED THE DEATH-KNELL OF FREE SILVER.

Chicago, July 10.-Ex-Governor Waller, of Connecticut, was early in his seat in the Convention hall this morning. To a representative of the United

The action of this Convention has left only one course for the sound-money men to pursue. They must, if they desire to hold the Democratic party together in the East, call a convention and nominate a man upon the gold platform. This Convention and nominate as man upon the gold platform. This Convention assembled here has sounded the death-knell of free silver. Their high-handed method of procedure will be resented by Democrats generally. The silver men here have overridden themselves and left the way open for the gold men to bolt their nominees."

OPINIONS OF THE LONDON PRESS. COTHING FOR HONEST DEMOCRATS TO DO BUT TO SUPPORT MIKINLEY AND GOLD.

July 10.-Commenting to-morrow on the action of the Chicago Convention, "The Standard" will say that the only alternative for the honest-money Democrats is to rally to the support of Mekinley, who now alone represents the forces of honesty and fair financial dealing. The paper assumes McKinley's election, and says it forceses that Great Britain will have to face downright commercial hostility. It concludes by saying that the collapse of Democracy and the triumph of McKinley'sm will not gladden the hearts of Englishmen.

"The Daily News" will say that Bryan's views are great nonsense; nevertheless, he is a perfectly "The Daily News" will say that Bryan's view are great nonsense; nevertheless, he is a perfect logica; bimetallist. McKinley is almost certain twin. Anyhow, he is sound on the money question "The Times" will say "It will be a severe wrench for sound-money Democrats to bring themselves to vote for a Republican, but there is a possibility that they will come to that. The Chicago platform has put an end to party allegiance."

CHICAGO'S "STAATS ZEITUNG" CAN'T STAND IT.

Chicago, July 10 .- "The Staats Zeitung," of Chicago, the leading German paper of the West, which has been an important aid to the Democratic party in recent years, will bolt the ticket and the platin recent years, will bolt the ticket and the platform. Wasnington Hesing, the Editor and proprietor, said last night: "The Staats Zeitung will bolt this ticket, but not until Saturday morning, We intend to let them nominate their candidates first, so that we can give the better reason for leaving the party. The candidates will surely be free-silver people, and that will make our position the stronger. The Germans of the West, whom The Staats Zeitung represents have no sympathy with such a platform as was adopted to-day, and the paper, speaking for them, cannot honestly indorse it."

ALABAMA POPULISTS DELIGHTED. Birmingham, Ala., July 10 (Special.)-The nom nation of Bryan for President has not met the ap proval of gold Democrats in this section. They are asking how he can expect them to vote for when he said at Jackson, Miss., last fall that he would not vote for a gold Democrat. This state-ment of Bryan's was confirmed by him both in Mobile and at Birmingham. The Populists wear a broad grin. Their leaders say that Bryan is one of them. Republicans express satisfaction at the result.

VICTIM OF A DUEL.

AN ITALIAN SAID TO BE DYING FROM PISTOL WOUNDS AND THE OTHER COMBA-

As the result of a fight between the children of two Italian families in Port Chester on Sunday night, which was taken up by the parents of the children and continued on Monday and Thursday nights, one Italian is in a dying condition in the Port Chester hospital, while his assailant is locked up in Police Headquarters there to await the result of his injuries.

Among the Italians who live in the settlement on Among the Italians who live in the settlement on the Bowery are the families of Antonio Carrierlo and Leonardo Lorusso. It was their children who had the argument on Sunday night. The parents of both backed up their children and when the fight was over it was agreed that Carrierlo and Lorusso should meet on the following night to decide supremacy. They did so and when they met both had knives. The two were cut, but not seriously, and then it was decided that the fight should be postponed until Thursday night, and that revolvers should be the weapons used this time.

that revolvers should be the weapons used this time.

Lorusso and Carrierio, accompanied by three Italians whose names are not known, met by agreement in a saloon and had a consultation. They then went out to the sidewalk. No sooner had they done so than Carrierio and Lorusso had drawn revolvers and began firing. Carrierio was the quicker or better shot, for three builets struck his opponent. One entered his thigh, another his groin and the third his jaw. He fell to the ground and was removed to the hospital, where he is reported to be in a dying condition. Carrierio tried to escape, but was caught.

The three Italians who were the witnesses disappeared and have not been found, although the police are looking for them. Lorusse made an ante-mortem statement, in which he accused Carrierio of shooting him, but refused to talk further about the fight. Carrierio also refuses to discuss it.

THE OSTEND SEASON.

Notwithstanding the increased hotel accommodations at Ostend, there is a probability of all the hotels being filled to their utmost capacity, so great has being filed to pullarity of this now fashionable sea-become the popularity of this now fashionable sea-side resort. The beautiful chateau of His Majesty King Leopold is being got ready for him and the King Leopold is being got ready for him and the brilliant company that is entertained by his daughter, Princess Clementine, during the many weeks parsed by the Royal family at Ostend each season. There is a rumor that some members of the royal family of England intend passing a few weeks at family of England intend passing to and fro because of the facilities for crossing to and fro because of any other line to the Continue.

THE CAPITAL IS THEIRS.

WASHINGTON GIVEN OVER TO THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

"SAVED TO SERVE" WAS THE TOPIC YESTERDAY-TENT WILLISTON PUT UP IN TIME FOR

ROLL OF HONOR. Washington, July 10 .- The second day's business of the fifteenth annual International Christian Endeavor Convention began to-day at 9:20 in the two tents near the Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church. Tent Williston was still in a state of collapse, and the crowd that would have found accommodations there went to the Wesley Church. The usual 6 o'clock prayer-meeting, held in thirty-three city churches, and the meeting for Bible study, in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, preceded to Serve," and attention was devoted to the Junior Societies. Secretary Baer presided at the Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church meeting, and addresses were delivered by Miss Grace E. Hyde, of Massachusetts: C. J. Atkinson, of Toronto; the Rev. Peter Ainslee, of Baltimore, and others.

THE NIGHT SESSION-MISSIONARY

Bishop Fellows, of Chicago, was in the chair at Tent Washington. Speeches were made by Miss Kate Haus, of St. Louis; the Rev. H. S. Williams, of Memphis; the Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, and J. Wilber Chapman, of Philadelphia. who was to have presided at the Tent Endeavor meeting, being abroad, his place was taken by John T. Beckley, of New-York. Mrs. Clark, wife of the dress on the "Mothers' Societies." Wilson, of Toronto, and H. M. Wharton, of Balti-

President Clark presided at the Central Hall meeting, and the Rev. Dr. Charles A. Dickinson, of Boston, spoke on the intermediate societies of Christian Endeavor. He was followed by the Rev. Joh Nell, of Toronto; President B. I. Whitman, of the Washington Columbian University; the Rev. ers, of Brooklyn, and the Rev. J. W. Weddell, of

One of the features of the large meeting was the unrolling of the missionary roll of honor. On it were the names of 5.863 young people's societies and 2,231 junior societies, representing thirty-five States. seven Territories, seven provinces and four foreign lands, and showing contributions of $154,022.68 home and foreign mission boards and $206,150.21 other denominational uses, a total of $360,172 89. this the Clarendon Street Baptist Society, of Boston, and the Calvary Presbyterian Society, of Bu falo, each gave more than $1,000.

The noon evangelistic meeting was conducted to day by the Rev. W. H. Towers, of England. The afternoon programms included conferences separate churches of corresponding secretaries, on officers, district secretaries, State and provincial officers from 2:30 to 4 o'clock, committee conferences from 3:30 to 6:33 and conference workers in advanced endeavor lines, mothers' parents' societies, intermediate and senior societies, life savers' societies, travellers' and floating societies from 2:30 to 5:30. The work of the life-savers' societies was illustrated by stereopticon views in colors, conducted by the Rev. J. L. Wells, of Jer-

The first of the bicycle runs planned for the convention took place to-day, starting from Lafayette Square and Vermont-ave. Fully eight hundred wheels were in line, many being gayly decorated with convention badges, banners and ribbons.

The second day's proceedings of the Convention came to an end to-night in nine vast meetings held in the tents and churches. Tent Withsten had been re-erected, and was again at the service of convention. As in the meetings this morning and the capacity of the tents was taxed night to the utmost to accommodate the crowds.

One feature of this convention the calls for especial notice is the singing. A chorus of over four thousand voices has been in training for severa weeks for these meetings. This chorus is divided into four sections, one numbering more than one thousand voices for each tent, and one for use in the churches. The sections six in tiers behind the speakers and sing Endeavor songs, in which the vast audiences join.

The property

ther speakers and presiding once a weekengs were as follows: The Revs. R. W. Brokaw, seachusetts; C. L. Pate, Washington; J. L. Campsl, New-York City; W. H. Robinson, Chicago; R. Hufford, Reading, Penn; J. M. Lowden, Rhode and; K. B. Tupper, Philadelphia; Henry Faville, seonsin; John Faville, Wisconsin, Charles B. madell, Washington; W. H. Towers, England; J. madell, Washington; W. H. Towers, England; J. Markey, M. M. Lowers, R. M.

J. B. North, Washington, Ashet Anton, Conn.: Edward Warren, Washington; J. Edward Kolpp, Baltimore: A. F. Richardson, West Virginia; William J. Harsha, New-York: Matthew Hughes, Minneapolis: Professor J. L. Howe, Virginia; the Revs. S. F. Hershy, Roston, F. C. Ottman, Newark and Bishop Hott, of Iowa.

Nashville is in line for the 1898 convention. It is understood that the trustees are favorably inclined to Nashville, but fear of the effect in cities where the color line is strictly drawn of mixed delegations such as come from the North may prevent the selection of a Southern city. Omaha, Buffalo and Scranton are canvassing for the honor.

NO WILL LEFT BY GEORGE LAW.

STATEMENTS OF HIS ATTORNEY-THE LEGAL HEIRS.

According to the attorney of the late George Law, he died without having made a will or having sig-nified a desire to make one. A well-known lawyer of this city, who had charge of certain large financ.al interests of Mr. Law, said that he had no knowledge of a will having been made.

Colonel John Hardy, of No. 265 Broadway, who was attorney for Mr. Law in his personal affairs was attorney for Mr. Law in his personal analysis up to the time of his death, said yesterday: "So far as I know, Mr. Law never made a will. Inquiries have been made of me by the heirs, or those who might be, as to any will, but I told them I knew of none. I am sure I would have known of it if any will had been made. Still, one may have been drawn."

It was suggested that possibly Mr. Law had se-It was suggested that possible in the cured the services of C. Bainbridge Smith, the grandfather of Mrs. Law, to draw a will. To this Colonel Hardy replied: "No. Mrs. Smith has not acted for Mr. Law. He now looks out for the legal interests of Mrs. Law."
Continuing, Colonel Hardy said: "Mr. Law's illness was not considered serious until Friday last. Still, his physician advised quiet, and so certain Still, his physician saying he would be able to attend to this business by July 15. Mr. Law, too, was a young man. He was fifty-three, but that is His father lived to be seventy-six, and his mother to be seventy-three." When asked what course would be taken, ther being no will, Colonel Hardy replied: "The statutory course. There are four heirs in that case, being no will, Colonel Hardy replace: The statutory coursa. There are four heirs in that case, tha widow and the three sisters of Mr. Law. Letters of administration would be applied for, probably by the widow."

When Colonel Hardy's attention was called to the fact that Mrs. Law was not yet twenty-one years old, he said: "Well, that might complicate maiters."

The sisters of Mr. Law are Mrs. Josephine Law
Haines, formerly Mrs. Charles May, who was married to Mr. Haines about a year ago; Mrs. Sarah Williams, a widow, who lives at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in the winter and at the old Law homestead, at Cambridge, Washington County, in the summer, with her sister, Mrs. Anna M. Wright, and the last-named.
Under the statute, Colonel Hardy said, the widow would receive one-half the personal estate and $2,000, with a life interest in one-third of the real estate. The sisters would receive the rest. The bulk of the estate is in personal property.
One who is well acqualated with the affairs of the estate raid vesterialy that the elder George Law left 16,000,000, of which the son, George, rerelyed one-fourth. The increase in value of stocks had added something to this amount, but not to a large extent.
George Law's elder brother, Samuel, died some large extent.

George Law's elder brother, Samuel, died some six years ago. He had never married.

MR. LAW'S FUNERAL. The funeral of George Law, the railroad president, which occurred yesterday morning at his home, No. 259 Fifth-ave, was of a strictly private character, admission to the house being by card. Many of the floral tributes were from railroad emplayes, and comprised crosses, columns and wreathes. The business associates of the dead man also sent many floral emblems. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. David J. Burrell, of the conducted by the Rev. Dr. David J. Burrell, of the Marble Collegiate Church, who paid a tribute to the many good qualities that the dead man possessed. Several hymns were sung by a quartet from the Marble Collegiate Church.

Among those present were Mrs. Law, the widow; Mr. and Mrs. Smith, the brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Law; Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Savage, M. B. Gerard, J. G. Affleck, F. P. Watson and the crew of the Alga, the yacht that belonged to Mr. Law. There were present also representatives of the Eighth Avenue Railroad. The burial took place in the family plot at Greenwood.

HE LEAPS TO HIS DEATH.

A WOULD-BE MURDERER SHOOTS A WOMAN AND JUMPS BEFORE A TRAIN.

THE COUPLE GET INTO A DISPUTE AT AN UP

TOWN ELEVATED STATION-BOTH HAD BEEN DRINKING. THE MAN'S LIFE CRUSHED

OUT-HIS COMPANION LIKELY

The elevated railroad station at One-hundred-andthirty-fifth-st, and Eighth-ave, was the scene of a sensational tragedy at 8:25 o'clock last night, when John Golden, forty years old, of No. 2,429 Eighthave., an employe of the road, fired three shots at Mrs. Catherine Hanover, thirty-one years old, of No. 460 West One-hundred-and-thirty-fourth-st., and afterward, finding himself unable to escape capture, took his own life by jumping in front of the locomotive attached to a south-bound train. One of the bullets struck the back of the woman's head, inflicting a severe scalp wound. two bullets lodged in the woman's left hand and thumb. Mrs. Hanover was taken to the Manhattan

Golden was instantly killed by the lo His body was dragged along the tracks for fully seventy-five feet before William T. Jereve, the engineer, of No. 642 Sixth-ave., could bring his train to a standstill. The engine had to be raised from the tracks by means of jackscrews before the mangled body of the would-be murderer could be extricated. BOTH HAD BEEN DRINKING.

Golden and the woman had been drinking in a neighboring saloon during the greater part of the afternoon. He was employed as a conductor on the elevated road, and had been in its service for ten years. Yesterday being his day off, Golden took advantage of the opportunity to spend it with Mrs. Havoner, whom, it is said, he had known for two years. Leaving the saloon the couple walked to the levated station, where, after purchasing two tickets and depositing them in the box, they proceeded to the end of the southbound platform. engaged in a conversation, during which it was evident a quarrel of some kind arose, for the woman, haughtily tossing her head, started to leave her

Golden called to her and said: "Katie, I want to speak to you;" but Mrs. Havoner made no reply and continued to walk toward the stairway leading down to the street. Her refusal to return enraged the conductor, who drew forth a 32-calibre re-volver from his hip pocket, levelled it at the woman's head and fired. In quick succession he fired three shots. The first bullet which struck the victim's head knocked her senseless and the woman fell to the floor of the platform. BENDS OVER THE WOMAN AND FIRES

Golden then bent over the prostrate woman and discharged two additional cartridges, but his aim was poor and the bullets only inflicted slight Biward M. Kirk, the ticket chopper, was standisdward M. Kirk, the ticket chopper, was standing with his back to the couple when the pistol shots were fired. He was stupefied by the sight which confronted him as he turned around, but quickly recovering his senses, made a grab at Golden, who seemed dazed for a moment as he stood with giaring eyes clutching the weapon with which he had sought to commit murder.

Golden fought desperately to escape the moment he felt the grip of his captor. The men struggled flercely for several seconds, when Golden, at last freeing himself from Kirk's grasp, ran to the edge of the platform and deliberately jumped in front of ...ocomotive No. 332, which was coming to a stop at the station.

The police say that possibly, in his state of excite-

The police say that possibly, in his state of excitement, Golden did not see the approaching train and made the lean in the hope of making his escape by running along the side of the tracks, but the eye-witnesses to the tragedy believe that the man jumped with suicidal intent, since he found himself unable to gain his freedom.

THE RESERVES CALLED OUT.

In the mean time, Policemen Beck and Day, of the West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st, station, summoned the reserves of the Thirtieth Precinct to disperse the large crowds which immediately collected about the stairs leading to the station.

The woman struggled to her feet after the third shot had been fired, and while Kirk was grappling with her assailant she staggered into the wome with ner assaular, was a waiting-room, where from exhaustion she sank upon one of the beaches. She refused to give the police any information concerning her identity or her re-lations with Golden until they threatened her with arrest. Then amid her sobs she said she was Cath-erine Havoner, of No. 460 West One-hundred-andthirty-fourth-st. She was the wife, she declared, of Harvey Havoner, a barber, whose shop is in the Alpine apartment-house. Mrs. Havoner was hastily driven in an ambulance to the hospital, where she driven in an ambulance to the hospital, where sae is suffering from shock and the effects of the bullet wounds. Her condition is not serious, however, and the doctors feel satisfied of her recovery.

The train hands assisted by the police labored for more than an hour trying to take Golden's body from under the wheels. It was mangled beyond recognition when finally laid upon the platform. The body was taken to the West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st. station.

body was taken to the twest charge as taken to the twenty-fifth-st station.

Golden was a married man. He leaves a wife and young son. Three weeks ago be buried his father and a short time previous his second child died. The scene at the police station last night when Golden's wife arrived was pathetic. The woman wept bitterly as she viewed the dismembered body of her husband and soon became hysterical. When Mrs. Golden recovered control of her feelings she sent her son for James M. Develin, an undertaker, of No. 15 Kast Ninety-sixth-st., who will take charge of the body when a coroner's permit is obtained.

Engineer Grove and Fire man Jacob Grier, of No. 627 East Fourteenth-st., were arrested. The engineer said he did not see the man jump.

ARRIVAL OF OCEAN STEAMERS.

SOME OF THE PASSENGERS ON THE ST. LOUIS AND THE CAMPANIA.

The fast American steamship St. Louis arrived at Quarantine at 9:40 o'clock last night. She was followed into Quarantine at 9:50 by the Cunarder Campania. The St. Louis came up to her pier, but the captain of the Campania decided to anchor at

A. McDonald, the United States Minister to Persia, was a passenger on the St. Louis. He was ill and could not be seen. Mr. McDonald has 180 days' leave of absence. He was a speciator at the coronation of the Czar.

Other passengers on the American vessel were D. Francisco Alvarado, Dr. and Mrs. William T. Bull, Robert S. C. Fuller, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. Halton F. Harris, Louis Walter Herold, Stephen S. Langley, Henry T. Sloane, David C. Townsend, F. C. Van Dusen, Miss Grace Ward, Clement Weaver, W. R. Walkley and Clarence Winer.

Among the passengers arriving on the Campania were Mrs. Astor. Mrs. B. Mein Austin. Captain T. Bassett, General C. B. Comstock, Dr. Curtis, Center Hitchcock, Dean Hoffman, Mrs. Clarence M. Hyde, the Rev. Dr. Donald Sage Mackay, Dr. Beverly Robinson, Bishop John Hazen White and Egerton Winthrop.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

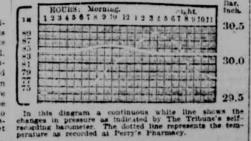

Washington, July 10.—The area of high pressure has moved slowly from the Massachusetts coast to the Caro-lina coast. The storm has remained nearly stationary to the north of Montana. Light rain has fallen in the Middle and South Atlantic States, and heavy rain in the Middle Gulf States and Southwest. The temperature has failen in Georgia and Alabama and has risen or remained stationary elsewhere. Fair and warmer weather is indicated for the districts cast of the Mississippi River, and fair weather will probably continue several days in the Atlantic States.

DETAILED FORECAST FOR TO-DAY. For New-England and Eastern New-York, threatening scuthwesterly winds.

For New-Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia, fair, preceded by showers on the coast, fair Sunday and Mony, warmer; southerly to southwesterly winds. For the District of Columbia and Eastern Pennsylvania, For the District of Columbia and Eastern Penneylvania, threatening in the morning, probably without rain; fair in the afternoon; fair Sunday and Monday; warmer; southwesterly winds.

For Western Pennsylvania, Western New-York and Obic, fair till Sunday night; preceded by showers on the lakes; warmer; fresh to brisk southwesterly winds.

TRIBUNE LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

was fair and warm. The temperature ranged between 15 and 89 degrees, the average (83 degrees) being 6 degrees higher than that of Thursday and 14% higher than that of the corresponding day of last year.

The weather to-day will be threatening.

FATHER KILLEEN SUSPENDED.

THE PRIEST AGAINST WHOM CHARGE HAVE BEEN PREFERRED BY HIS PA-RISHIONERS RETIRED PEND-ING A HEARING.

Under the charges recently preferred against him by some of his parishioners, Father Thomas M. Killeen, rector of St. Mary's Star of Sea Roman Catholic Church, in Bayonne, N. J., was suspended from the rectorate and removed from the parish yesterday by Bishop Wigger, of the Diocese of Although this result of the warfare waged against Pather Killeen for ten weeks by his disgruntled parishioners had been anticipated by themail this week, the fact was BA known last night to more than a score of person in Bayonne. Those who were aware of Bishe Wigger's summary action were so reticent few facts could be obtained. Persistent is few facts could be obtained. Persistent inquiry disclosed the information that early in the afternoon Father Stafford, acting chanceller of the diocese in the place of Father Wallace, who palls on Saturday for Europe, arrived in Bayonne from the episcopal seat at South Orange and hastoned to St. Mary's rectory. Following the customary cierical greeting, Acting Chancellor Stafford, who is said to have been previously unacquainted with Father Killeen, served upon the latter the documents of suspension preferred by Bishop Wigner, and soon afterward Father Killeen privately left the rectory. He is said to have boarded a trolley car bound for Jersey City. While his destination is not known for a certainty, it is understood that he answered a summons to appear before the Bishop at Seton Hall College. Acting Chancellor Stafford remained at the rectory to consuit with Father William J. Richmond, curate of St. Mary's Church.

has not been ordained a sufficient time to allow of his appointment as rector. There were ten charges against Father Killess, the most serious one being that he had transferred parish property valued at 18,000 to his housekeeper, Winifred Ford. The priest was also accused wheing seen at summer resorts with his housekeeper, of forcing the curate to eat at the table with her, of sitting on the plazas with her in public view, and of taking her back as his housekeeper after she had been ordered away by the Bishop. Father Killeen is an old man, who has had trouble with his congregation before. He wears a heavy beard, by special dispensation, because of an affliction of the thresh

GUARDSMEN OVERCOME BY HEAT.

DOINGS OF A HOT DAY IN CAMP-VISITOR FROM BROOKLYN.

State Camp, Peekskill, July 10.-The sudd from cloudy weather to clear skies and a hot sun had a rather disastrous effect upon the 13th and the provisional battalion this morning. The ambules and medical departments were kept busy during guard mount, which began at 8:30 o'clock. A number of the new guards were overcome by the h and later, at the regimental drills, so many pros tions occurred that the recall was sounded at 10:6 o'clock, three-quarters of an hour earlier than is usual. There were fifteen cases in all, but the largest part of them were slight and the suff on recovered.

Six hundred Brooklyn people were landed at Ros. Hook at 1:30 to-day, and the stages and carriages that were at the landing waiting to bring them into camp reaped a harvest. On the parade ground there was a baseball game between the 5th Separate Company and the Cortlandt Baseball Club, of Peckskill. The score at the end of the minth liming was 6 to 5 in favor of the 25th Company.

The last evening parade of the week was reviewed by Major Cochran, of the 1st Battailon. The formstion was beautiful. The excursion party went home shortly after the parade. Some of the women who came up on the boat fainted from heat and exhaustion during the afternoon.

The officer of the day to-morrow will be Captain John T. Jennings, of the 13th; officers of the guard. First Lieutenant James W. Stewart and First Lieutenant James W. Stewart and First Lieutenant Theodore W. Budleman, of the 13th.

The 23d Regiment, the 25th Separate Company, of Medina; the 3th, of Geneva; the 45th, of Amsterdam, and the 41st of Syracuse, will relieve the command in camp to-morrow.

If in need of a Remedy for a Sore Throat, or Bad Cougn or Cold, use promptly Dr. Jayne's Ex pectorant, a useful medicine to keep in the house, because of its great helpfulness in all Lung and Throat troubles. If bilious, take Jayne's Painless Sanative Pills.

DIED. DEANE Suddenly, in this city, on Friday, July 10, 1880, Abbie W. Deane. Abbie W. Deane. Interment at Syracuse. Cedar Rapids and Ottumwa (Iowa) papers please copy age. Juneral services on Monday, July 13, at 11 o'clock, at Grace Church, New-York City.

GRIFFIN-At Briar Chiff, Sing Sing, N. Y., July 9, 1806, Jane D., wife of George W. Griffin, in the 62d year of hare D., wife of George W. Arrival of the funeral Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at her late residence, on Saturday, July 11, at 10 a. m. Carriages will meet the arrival of the 9:35 a. m. train from Grand Central Station at Sing Sing.

Interment at Greenwood Cemetery at conclusion of acrimical services.

ROBERGE-On July 9, 1896, David Roterge, aged Ti

Roberton Surveys and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, Van Sicklen, Comey Island, N. Y., on Sunday, at 1 o'clock, interment at Evergreens.

SUTER—Entered into life, on Friday morning, July 18, Waiter, youngest son of Anna and the late Louis Suter-Funeral services at his late residence, No. 217 Madison—S., Brooklyn, on Sunday evening, July 12, at 7 o'clock, VEYSEY—At her residence, Plainfield, N. J., July 16, 1856, Constance Hamilton Southard, wife of Walter M. P. Veysey and only daughter of Charles C. and Mary H. Southard.

The Kensice Cemetery, located on the Harism Railroad forty-eight minutes' ride from the Grand Central Depot. Office, 16 East 42d-st.

Special Notices.

Prepare to Exclude the Files.—Largest stock the world of acreens, screen wire, acreen doors and far tures. Roebuck's, 172 Fulton St., N. Y., 18th St. and Hamilton Ave., Brooklyn. Custom screens made to order in any wood.

Portoffice Notice.

Poreign mails for the week ending July 11 will closs promptly in all cases) at this office as follows:

promptly in all cases) at this office as follows:

TRANSATLANTIC MAILS.

SATURDAY—At 7 a. m. for Germany, Dearmark, Sweden, Norway, (Christiania), and Russia, per a. a. Scale*, via Bremen detters for other parts of Europe, via Cherbourg, must be directed "per Saale*); at 7 a. m. for Netherlands direct, per a. a. Obdam, via Rotterdam (setters must be directed "per Obdam"); at 8 a. m. for Genca, per s. a. Ems detters must be directed "per Ems"); at 9 a. m. (supplement ary 10:28 a. m.) for Passes, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Fortugal, Turkey, Egypt and British India, per a. L. TourainBritish India, per a. L. TourainBritish India, per a. C. L. TourainBritish India, per a. E. L. TourainBritish India, per a. C. L. TourainBritish India countries for which they are advertised to carry mail.

After the closing of the supplementary transatiantic mails amed above additional supplementary mails are opened on the piers of the American English, French and German steamers, and remain epen until within ten misures of the hour of vailing of steamer.

MAILS FOR SOUTH AND CENTRAL AMERICA, WEBT INDIES, ETC.

SATURDAY—At 10 a. m. oupplementary 10:30 a. m) for Fortune leiand, Jamaica, Cartinagena and Savanilla, per s. s. Allechany; at 10:30 a. m. for Campeche, Chiapas, Tabasco, Tuxpam and Yucatan, per s. s. City of Washington; or the parts of Mexico and for Cuba must be directed "per City of Washington"); at 10 a. m. for Newfoundland, per s. s. Portia of Manington, per s. s. Silvia; at 12 m. for Jamaica, per s. s. Americy detects for Beliz, Fuerto Cortex and Guatemnia must be directed "per Anorley"; at 12 m. for Granada, at 17 m. for Harbadoes direct, also North Brazil, via Pamand Amanos, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for Harbadoes direct, also North Brazil, via Pamand Manaco, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for Harbadoes direct, also North Brazil, via Pamand Manaco, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for Harbadoes direct, also North Brazil, via Pamand Manaco, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for Harbadoes direct, also North Brazil, via Pamand Manaco, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for Harbadoes direct also North Brazil, via Pamand Manaco, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for Harbadoes direct also North Brazil, via Pamand Manaco, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for Harbadoes direct also North Brazil, via Pamand Manaco, per s. a Orenada; at 1 p. m. for St. Pierre-Miquelon, per rienmer from North Sydney.

Mails for Newfoundland, by rail to Halifax, and thence by steamer, close at this office daily at $.30 p. m. Mails for Micuelin, by rail to Boston, and thence by steamer, close at this office daily at $.30 p. m. Mails for Cute close at this office daily at $.00 n. for forwarding by steamer at this office daily at $1.00 n. for forwarding by steamers assume (Mondays and Thursdays) from Port Tampa, Fin. Mails for Mexico, exchand, unless specially addressed as dispatch by steamer close at this office daily at $1.00 n. TRANSPACIFIC MAILS.

TRANSPACIFIC MAILS.